INSTRUCTIONS

1. All documents requested are to be produced if they are in the custody, possession or control of, or are available or accessible to, Plaintiffs or counsel to Plaintiffs.
2. This request shall be deemed to include any and all nonprivileged relevant documents in the possession, custody or control of either Plaintiff, or his or her accountants, attorneys, employees or other agents.

Re: Dr. Earl Jann and Carol Isacson v. Sample & Cross Capital Management LLC, Matthew D. Sample and J. David Cross

Dear Mr. Katten:

We are in receipt of Dr. Earl Jann ("Jann") and Carol Isacson's discovery responses. I am writing to inform you, however, that we find you to be deficient in your production.

We requested several documents that have not yet been produced, including, but not limited to, summaries of trades made by both Jann and Isacson over the last 10 years, communications between either Jann or Isacson and Matthew Sample or J. David Cross regarding the Vega Fund, account statements, trading records, agreements and disclosures received by either Jann or Isacson in relation to any UBS, Paine Webber or other securities accounts maintained by them. We find it highly unlikely that neither Jann nor Isacson have these documents in their possession. To date, we have only received the Vega Opportunity Fund monthly account statements for Jann and Isacson and scant documentation of e-mail correspondence between Jann and Matthew Sample. Please produce any and all responsive documents as soon as practicable. Additionally, you failed to provide the business address information for the various financial advisors listed in your answer to Interrogatory Number 3. Please provide us with this information as well.

Additionally, the June dates you proposed for depositions will not work. Mr. Bennett has an arbitration in mid-June in New York City and will be out of the office for most of the month. We would like to expedite discovery in this case as much as possible, as this case involves very serious and unfounded allegations against our clients. We would like to take the depositions of both Jann and Isacson as soon as possible. We propose to take the deposition of Dr. Earl Jann on Monday, April 28, 2008 and the deposition of Carol Isacson on Tuesday, April 29, 2008 here in Chicago. Enclosed, please find our Notice of Deposition reflecting those dates. We also propose that you take Matthew Sample's deposition on Wednesday, April 30, 2008 as he is moving out of state shortly thereafter.

Please let me know if you are amenable to this discovery schedule. If you have any questions or concerns regarding the above, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Re: Jann v. Sample & Cross Capital Management LLC
Case No: 07 CV 6595

Dear Mr. Katten:

I am writing in regard to Dr. Jann's and Carol Isacson's responses to Sample & Cross Capital Management LLC's ("Sample & Cross") Request for Production of Documents. We feel that there are certain deficiencies in their production.

For our initial Requests, we sought each Plaintiff's federal and state income tax returns for the years commencing January 1, 1998 to date. You objected to this Request as overly broad, unduly burdensome and not reasonably calculated to lead to admissible evidence. We disagree and feel that both Dr. Jann's and Ms. Isacson's federal income tax returns are relevant to this case. As such, we are renewing our request as follows:

Request No. 14: Each Plaintiff's federal income tax return for each year in which Paine Webber, UBS and/or Sample & Cross provided Plaintiffs investment services of any kind.

Additionally, in many of their responses, Plaintiffs indicated that they are investigating whether any responsive documents exist. You previously informed me that Dr. Jann has certain documents in his possession in Phoenix, Arizona. We ask that the originals or copies of these documents be made available to us at our offices within 14 days of receipt of this letter. Should your clients require more time to have copies of the documents made, please let me know when we can expect production.

Also, enclosed please find Sample & Cross's Supplemental Request for Production of Documents. Additionally, please be sure to bates label any documents you produce to us in the future as it makes it easier to keep track of the production for administrative purposes.

Re: Jann v. Sample & Cross Capital Management LLC

Dear Mr. Katten:

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 37 and Local Rule 37.2, I am writing to request a formal discovery conference between the parties to discuss Defendants' request for the tax returns of both Earl Jann and Carol Isacson.

In Defendants' First Request for Production of Documents, dated February 13, 2008, the following was requested:

Request No. 14: Each Plaintiff's federal and state income tax returns for the years commencing January 1, 1998 to date.

In our initial meeting on May 7, 2008, the issue of producing Plaintiffs' tax returns was discussed but, we feel, never resolved. It is our understanding that Plaintiffs are refusing to produce the tax returns. It is our position, however, that both Earl Jann's and Carol Isacson's tax returns are relevant to the underlying issues in this case and will provide summaries of the trading experience and financial sophistication of both Earl Jann and Carol Isacson.

Please let me know some dates that you are available to meet and confer regarding this issue.
